I would like to attend the event! What should I do next?

Buy yourself a ticket! There are different types of tickets that we offer. You can find them under the ticket section on the navigation guide.

The tickets seem so expensive, why do you have to charge that much?

An event like Revelations Germany has many liabilities to the actors and fans. For a successful event we need to ensure that all actors can be paid and other costs can be settled. Also this year there is an extremely limited amount of tickets.

Do you offer payment in installments?

Yes we do with our premium passes Platin and All Inclusive. You can choose yourself when to pay your installments as long as all due is paid before the event. If you do not pay all installments, there is no refund and no admission.

What payment methods do you offer? We offer the German Service „Sofortüberweisung“, GiroPay, CreditCard or Paypal. If you do not own any of these accounts please ask a friend or family member for help, maybe they can do the transaction for you.

Why are there additional service charges when I buy the ticket?

These are charges that our ticket distributor Ticketscript takes for their services. This is a normal and usual charge and the event organizers don't make any profit off of it.

Are there gonna be daily admission tickets this year?

No unfortunately this is not possible for us this time around.

Do I need a ticket before I buy any extras?

Yes! Should you buy extras before having an admission ticket, the system will cancel your order and your tickets become invalid.

I have bought several tickets and now my name is on all of them. Are my tickets valid now ?

Yes the name on the ticket doesn't matter at first. Important is the code and barcode on the ticket.

I would like to sit next to my friends at the event. But we will buy our tickets seperately. Is it possible still to sit next tot hem?

Yes! At registration on Friday at the event you simply have to register together. There will be assigned fix seat numbers fort he whole weekend. You have to own the same passes to be able to sit next to each other.

What is a Fast Pass?

The Fast pass is a one time Upgrade fort he whole weekend, that you can buy to your general admission tickets. Platin and All Inclusive Ticket holders have this pass already included. When it comes to getting in line for extras, you will be called through your pass category. With a Fast Pass you will have the ability to choose when you want to go to your extras aswell as skip the line to the front at any activity that requires this.
